2 DELEGATE CLAGETT: And so, as we take the course
3 of that legislation before the Senate, a week or two later,
4 and the same effort is duplicated, three or four 5 members may be present and the matter heard.

6 When it finally is voted upon and out of 7 committee, it then must follow the course between houses

9 Finally, it is in the last ten days by the 10 figures just given that the matter is considered.

11 Is that where we want to continue, or is that 12 a method we want to continue?

13 We have a chance of chartering a new course.
14 We have a chance to exert a degree of leadership and give 15 direction. The responsibility has been placed in us by 16 the people who have elected us. They are waiting for us
17 to give them a degree of leadership. Here, on such a 18 vital and constructive matter, we can give it, where stream-19 lining of government, the fixing of responsibility, the 20 clear definition of responsibility can be accomplished.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Your time is up.
